Dear Ms. Johnson and Members of the Atlanta City Council:

Let me take this opportunity to thank you and the City of Atlanta government for your creation of the Rev. James Orange Commission. This monumental task of honoring his legacy is sincerely appreciated and we are touched.

As a family we are indeed please to submit the name of his son Mr. Cleon Orange as our appointment to the Commission. Our family looks forward to working with the Commission and eagerly anticipates the finalization of an appropriate honor for a man whose impact can still be felt in our hearts and throughout the world.

Sincerely,

Cleo Orange
(On behalf of the family of the Late Reverend James Orange)
