Re: Appointment to the Atlanta Commission on Women

By this memorandum I am appointing Ms. Joyce Dorsey to the Atlanta Commission on Women for a term of two years. I am confident Ms. Dorsey will well represent this group's effort to address women's issues in the City of Atlanta.

Enclosed is biographical information on Ms. Dorsey along with a contact number of (404) 810-0090 ext. 247.

*Joyce J. Dorsey
3739 Chattahoochee Drive
Decatur, Georgia 30034
404.286-6877*

- Public Administrator with broad-based experience in organizational development, managing human service agencies, and project management, including construction and renovations of residential and business developments.
- Volunteer with non-profit organizations to youth, senior citizens, homeless and incarcerated persons. Track record of effective management, charismatic leadership and coordination of a variety of projects and fund raising initiatives.
- Lecturer and Public speaker on community, political and spiritual topics to targeted audiences, church, community, and the media.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, the ninth child of Rev. E.H. Dorsey and Gladys Alderman Dorsey, she moved to Atlanta with her family at the age of eight. All of her education was attained in the City of Atlanta... B.T. Washington High School, Spelman College (Bachelor's Degree) and Atlanta University, School of Social Work (MSW). She was inducted into the Alpha Kappa Delta Sociological Honor Society in 1986 and the International WHO's WHO amongst Professionals in 1995. Aside from formal education, Ms. Dorsey has completed numerous specialized courses to supplement her skills. She's a 1995 graduate of the Regional Leadership Institute of Georgia.

Joyce presently serves as the Executive Director of the Fulton Atlanta Community Action Authority. In this position, she coordinates the poverty program for the city and county, developing services that address the current needs of low income citizens. Prior to this experience, she directed the Saint Anne's/Perry Homes' Support to Employment Project (STEP); the Gladys A. Dorsey Home For Children; The Council on Battered Women, and held several positions with Georgia's Correctional System... One of them being a superintendent of the New Horizons Treatment Center for Incarcerated Women.

Active in her community, Joyce reserves time to volunteer with several organizations in Atlanta and Dekalb County. She is the immediate past Chair of the Board of Directors of the ACHOR Center. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Georgia Alliance for Children and the Georgia Association of Community Action Agencies. She's a member of the Decatur-Dekalb Chapter of the 100 Black Women, Member of the Atlanta Business League, and Atlanta League of Women Voters. She was appointed to the Governors' Census 2000 Complete Count Committee and presently holds the position of Secretary to the Board of Director's of the National Association of Community Action Agencies.

Recent Community Service Awards include International Who's Who amongst Professionals; Maybelle "Shades of You, Salute to You", OIC's Breakfast of Champions; Tribute to Black Women Community Leaders... Aunt Jemima Brands; J.C. Penney Golden Rule Community Service Award (United Way).

Joyce J. Dorsey is a member of the Pilgrim Cathedral of Atlanta. She devotes her life to her two sons; Jacques and Michael.
