BY COUNCILMEMBER CATHY WOOLARD

AN ORDINANCE TO ENACT A NEW DIVISION 10 OF ARTICLE XVI OF CHAPTER 2 OF THE CITY OF ATLANTA CODE OF ORDINANCES ENTITLED "FAIR LENDING AND HOME IMPROVEMENT PRACTICES COMMISSION"; TO PROVIDE FOR THE DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE COMMISSION; TO REPEAL CONFLICTING ORDINANCES; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

WHEREAS, numerous citizens have complained that they have been the victims of unfair and fraudulent mortgage loans; and

WHEREAS, such practices contribute to home foreclosures in the City of Atlanta, particularly among low to moderate income and elderly Atlantans; and

WHEREAS, a significant number of loans complained of originated as loans to finance home improvement projects; and

WHEREAS, the City of Atlanta will be better able to exercise the police powers and to protect the citizens of Atlanta by creating a commission which will be empowered to investigate abusive lending practices or fraudulent loans and improper home improvement contractor practices, to design and facilitate better educational programs among those citizens most vulnerable to abusive lending and home improvement contracting services, and to study the causes of foreclosures in the City of Atlanta, with a goal of reducing foreclosures through education of its citizens.

NOW THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ATLANTA, GEORGIA HEREBY ORDAINS,

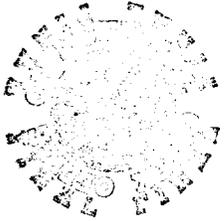

SECTION 1: A new Division 10 of Article XVI of Chapter 2 of the City of Atlanta Code of Ordinances entitled "Mortgage Lending and Home Improvement Practices Commission" be created to read as follows:

Division 10. Mortgage Lending and Home Improvement Practices Commission

Section 2-2201 Purpose and Declaration of Public Policy

(a) Purpose.

The Council finds that encouraging and maintaining strong levels of home ownership is in the best interest of the City, in that it promotes stability in neighborhoods and contributes to the general welfare of the citizenry. The Council further finds that a high level of foreclosures is antithetical to the general welfare of the community. The Council finds that the level of foreclosures in the City result from a complex host of causes, which may include unfair lending practices. The Council further finds that the provision of a variety of legitimate credit products is important to serve the needs of the citizens of Atlanta. The Council finds that the citizens of Atlanta would be well served by better education designed to help citizens understand the fundamentals of mortgage lending and to know what loans are advisable and not advisable for their respective situations. The Council further finds that door to door solicitation by home improvement contractors, particularly in low income communities, exacerbate and compound the problem of foreclosures and that specific measures should be undertaken to ensure responsible action by home improvement contractors. The Council further finds that it will be better guided in making future public policy determinations by having more expert information on the causes of foreclosures in the City.

(b) Declaration of Public Policy.

It is hereby declared as a matter of public policy to promote, encourage and maintain the highest possible levels of home ownership in the City of Atlanta, and concomitantly to minimize the level of mortgage foreclosures. It is further declared as a matter of public policy that persons engaging in unfair or fraudulent mortgage lending practices must be identified, investigated and referred to the appropriate governmental authorities for civil or criminal proceedings. It is further declared as a matter of public policy that the provision of fair and responsible credit products to the citizens of Atlanta is consistent with the general welfare. It is further declared as a matter of public policy that the citizens of Atlanta should have access to greater levels of education about mortgage lending and the responsible use of credit. It is further declared as a matter of public policy that door to door solicitation by home improvement contractors, particularly in low-income communities, pose special problems in generating mortgage loans which may not be advisable. It is further declared that additional, ongoing information about the level of foreclosures in the City and the causes of those foreclosures is needed to guide the Council in the exercise of its police power.

(a) Creation.

There is created and established a commission to be known as the Mortgage Fair Lending and Home Improvement Practices Commission.

(b) Membership.

The commission shall consist of seventeen (17) members who are residents of the City of Atlanta to be appointed as follows:
