To accomplish this savings the Mayor shall accept 73.5 furlough days in 2002. Employee furloughs shall not affect employees in regard to any other form of City benefits. Therefore, furloughs shall be administered as follows:

- Anniversary dates will not change, and furlough days will be counted as days toward next increment, and treated as continuous service for pension time calculation;
- An employee's performance review date will not be adjusted;
- The City of Atlanta will be responsible for making both employer and employee contributions for benefits on furlough days;
- Employees will continue to accrue annual and sick leave as if they were in pay status, and
