The Honorable Cathy Woolard, President
Members of the Atlanta City Council
55 Trinity Avenue, S.W.
Atlanta, Georgia 30335

Dear President Woolard and Members of Council:

It is my pleasure to appoint Ms. Linda DiSantis as City Attorney. Ms. DiSantis is the Vice President for Corporate Compliance at United Parcel Service, where she oversees the company's business conduct and ethics initiatives worldwide. She also manages the practice group responsible for commercial litigation, real estate and engineering issues, and environmental matters.

Prior to joining the UPS Legal Department, Ms. DiSantis practiced with the law firm of Alston & Bird in Atlanta. Copies of her biography and resume are attached for your review.

I am confident that Ms. DiSantis will be an asset to the City of Atlanta and the Department of Law, and I respectfully urge your confirmation of this appointment.

Sincerely,

Shirley Franklin

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Linda DiSantis is a Vice President and managing attorney in the United Parcel Service Corporate Legal Department. As a member of the Legal Department management team, she manages the practice group responsible for commercial litigation, real estate and engineering issues, and environmental matters. In 1999, she was responsible for creation of the UPS Core Counsel Network, a network of law firms organized on a regional and substantive basis that provides legal services to the company throughout the United States. Linda serves as the company's principal environmental attorney and is responsible for environmental regulatory issues arising under RCRA, CERCLA, the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, and other federal and state laws, and environmental litigation. Her area of practice also includes legal issues arising from the transportation of hazardous materials.

In addition to her responsibilities in the Corporate Legal Department, Linda serves as the Corporate Compliance Manager and manages the Corporate Compliance department. In 1995, Linda chaired the project team that created the company's Business Conduct and Compliance program. She has served as Chair of the Corporate Compliance Committee since its creation in 1996. In 2000, she was given the additional responsibility of managing the Corporate Compliance Department. This Department is responsible to oversee the company's business conduct and ethics initiatives worldwide.

Linda is a frequent speaker on issues related to legal department management, business conduct management and ethics, and environmental law.

Prior to joining the UPS Legal Department, Linda practiced with the law firm of Alston & Bird in Atlanta. She is a summa cum laude graduate of the Georgia State University College of Law. She serves on the Georgia Advisory Board of the Trust for Public Land, the Board of the Georgia Wildlife Federation, the Environmental Advisory Committee of the National Chamber Litigation Center, the Environmental Advisory Committee of the Metropolitan Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and the Executive Committee of the Clean Air Campaign. She is a member of the Ethics Officer Association. Linda's most recent publication, which appeared in the July 1999 edition of The Environmental Forum, is an article discussing environmental issues in the context of e-commerce.
