Dear Ms. Johnson:

I am pleased to inform you that the League of Women Voters of Atlanta-Fulton County has chosen to reappoint Leah Janus as the league's selection for membership on the City of Atlanta's Board of Ethics. Ms. Janus was initially appointed for a one-year term ending in August 2003 and has now been appointed for a full three-year term of office.

Ms. Janus meets all the requirements for the office. Enclosed is the appointment letter from the league's president and biographical data concerning the nominee. Ms. Janus underwent a background check last year when she was initially appointed to the Board and that investigation found no discrepancies, arrest histories, or abnormal entries concerning her.

If you need any further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Johnson

Why should the League of Women Voters of Atlanta-Fulton County nominate you for the City of Atlanta Ethics Board?

My commitment to the League's mission and goals, as well as my varied activities within the League, make me a worthy nominee to represent the League on the Ethics Board.

I have served as President of the Atlanta/Fulton County LWV and the LWV of Georgia. I also served as Chairperson of the Metropolitan Atlanta Fundraising Campaign celebrating the LWV's 75th Anniversary. In the year 2000, the Atlanta/Fulton County League honored me with the Eudora Rodgers Leadership Award. I continue to serve as an "Advisor Trustee."

After completing my term as President of the Georgia League, I was invited to join the Board of the Overseas Education Fund (OEF), now known as the Education Fund's "Global Community Dialogue."

During my tenure on the OEF Board, I chaired the Coalition for International Development, based in Washington which brought together women's organizations and individuals to plan for ways to strengthen women's role at the forthcoming UN Mid-Decade "Conference on Science and Technology for Development" in Copenhagen. This World Conference took place in July, 1980, and I attended as a member of the NGO Committee Task Force on the Roles of Women.
