RE: AHAND/ANDP joint appointment to the BAHAB

CC: Derrick Duckworth
 Andy Schneggenburger
 James Alexander

Atlanta Neighborhood Development Partnership (ANDP) and the Atlanta Housing Association of Neighborhood-based Developers (AHAND) would like to jointly appoint Mr. Derrick Duckworth to the Atlanta BeltLine TAD Affordable Housing Advisory Board to fill the seat vacated by Bruce Gunter.

Derrick is a community-based real estate professional with a special focus on residential and commercial urban real estate and community development. In addition to his work as a REALTOR with Morris and Raper Intown, Derrick currently serves as president of T.R.E.U (Transitional Real Estate in Underserved Urban Markets), an urban real estate consulting firm. He has been named to a number of affordable housing-focused committees and boards, including: the Metropolitan Atlanta Foreclosure Prevention and Remediation Action Oriented Research Advisory Committee; the ULI Terwilliger Center for Workforce Housing Steering Committee; the BeltLine Partnership's Speakers Bureau; the 30310 Mortgage Fraud Task Force; and the Adair Park Today Neighborhood Association.

Derrick will bring his extensive real estate and affordable housing background, integrity and dedication to the Atlanta BeltLine TAD Affordable Housing Board. Attached, please find a copy of his resume for your review. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.
