Attachment: Marion Cameron Resume

Marion L. Cameron, CPA

Ms. Cameron, President of MLCA, has more than 38 years of experience in accounting and tax, with 19 years of that experience in the field of public and governmental accounting. Ms. Cameron has been the engagement principal on the City of Atlanta Empowerment Zone (predecessor to the Atlanta Renewal Community CoRA, Inc.) audit for the past seven years. Ms. Cameron has been the engagement principal on the City of Riverdale (Downtown Development Authority) for the past two years. She also managed a series of compliance reviews under a multi-year contract with Bright From the Start: Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning (DECAL), in which the primary funding sources are the US Department of Agriculture and Georgia funded Prekindergarten programs. She has performed forensic agreed upon procedure reviews for DECAL. She also has 10 years auditing experience in not-for-profit and universities financial statement audits. The audit work performed for these organizations, as well as HUD regulated audits, consisted of examination and testing of financial data, evaluation of internal control systems, and HUD compliance testing as it related to the financial statements, office procedures, and housing regulations. She also has A-133 compliance testing experience with federally funded not-for-profit organizations.

Ms. Cameron has vast write-up or bookkeeping and tax experience which consists of IRS representation and tax preparation of individual, partnership, corporate, non-profit, fiduciary, and pension tax returns.
