Dear Ms. Johnson:

Let me take this opportunity to thank you and the City Council for your support following the passing of our beloved member and Civil Rights legend Rev. James Orange. The monumental task of sustaining his legacy has been made lighter because of your work.

Recently you requested that our congregation submit an appointment to the Commission recently established by the City Council to determine an appropriate honor memorializing Rev. Orange. As Senior Pastor, it would be my great honor to serve as the appointee for St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church. I have attached my bio for your review and approval.

As a resident of Atlanta, I look forward to shining the light on such a great American. He was my hero. Thank you in advance for your consideration and support of this appointment.

Sincerely,

Rev. Eric Thomas
Senior Pastor
