WHEREAS, pursuant to Ordinance 09-O-0128 the City Council adopted the Atlanta BeltLine Master Plan Subarea 3 (Boulevard Crossing) on March 26, 2009 and pursuant to Ordinance 09-O-0130 the City Council adopted the Atlanta BeltLine Master Plan Subarea 7 (Northside/Peachtree/Piedmont) on November 16, 2009 (collectively “the Subarea Plans”); and

WHEREAS, the residents and property owners in the Northside and Southeast Atlanta BeltLine Study Groups and NPUs B, C, E, F, Y, and W contributed to the development of the Subarea Plans and their vision for transit-oriented redevelopment, employment opportunities, new parks and trails, and affordable housing around the Lindbergh MARTA Station and planned Atlanta BeltLine transit station activity centers; and

WHEREAS, the Subarea Plans identify their respective study areas as existing or future activity centers organized around existing and future transit stations and parks; and

WHEREAS, the Atlanta Regional Commission administers the Livable Centers Initiative (LCI) program, which includes a process by which it can be requested and the ARC will recognize a local government’s existing plan, so long as it otherwise complies with the planning requirements of the LCI program (“Grandfather Review Process”); and

WHEREAS, such Grandfather Review Process requires the submittal of certain deliverables, including the planning documents sought for recognition as LCI as well as a formal resolution of support from the governing authority in connection with such a request (“LCI Grandfather Request”); and

WHEREAS, upon review by the ARC of a formal LCI Grandfather Request, the ARC issues a response and determination of the finding from the LCI Grandfather Request and if found to have followed and achieved the LCI goals, process and deliverables, a determination of adequacy will be provided and the study will be recognized as an LCI, with all the benefits of said designation including eligibility for LCI transportation funding (federal L230 STP-Urban funds administered through ARC) and supplemental study funding; and

WHEREAS, the City Council wishes to submit a formal LCI Grandfather Request to the ARC for recognition of the Atlanta BeltLine Master Plan: Subarea 3 (Boulevard Crossing) and Atlanta BeltLine Master Plan Subarea 7 (Northside/Peachtree/Piedmont) into the LCI Program; and

WHEREAS, the City Council wishes to authorize the Department of Planning and Community Development to submit the Subarea Plans and all necessary deliverables requested by ARC for the Grandfather Review Process.
