Dear Ms. Johnson:

The Concerned Black Clergy (CBC) of Metropolitan Atlanta, Inc. is an interfaith, interdenominational, non-partisan 501c (3) organization. For twenty-seven years, we have provided leadership, advocacy, and service to our community. As the Primary, proactive, principle-centered organization in Atlanta, we address issues that impact homelessness such as education inadequacies, health disparities, juvenile injustices, economic development difference, social inequalities, and political awareness to name a few.

(CBC) is delighted to recommend the Rev. Dr. Richard H. Cobble, President of (CBC), to serve on the Commission to honor the Rev. James Orange. Upon confirmation, please send all correspondence concerning this great honor to Concerned Black Clergy 1065 Ralph David Abernathy Blvd., SW Atlanta, GA 30310. We greatly appreciate the Atlanta City Council for considering our organization as the City comes together to select the most benefiting way to honor Rev. Orange.

Should you need any concerns addressed immediately, please contact me, Rev. Michael Wright, Sr., Executive Director, directly at 404-755-4900, CBC Office or cbcxdir@bellsouth.net, email.

Again, thank you for this prestigious honor and (CBC) values the partnership of the Atlanta City Council as we strive together to improve the City of Atlanta.

Yours In Service,

Michael B. Wright, Sr.
Executive Director
