Re: Our Client: Sherry Ann Rivers
Date of Loss: 4/10/2011

Dear Law Department:

This is to formally advise you that Ms. Sherry Ann Rivers has retained our firm to represent her in her personal injury claim resulting from the above referenced accident involving your driver, Atlanta Police Officer Hashanee Tinsley-Williams. Our client has sustained injuries from this accident and is presently receiving medical treatment. Our evaluation of this case and demand, to include medical bills and reports will be forwarded to you, upon completion of his medical treatment and release from doctor's care.

The report of the accident, the police officer's investigation, and statement of the parties reflect that Officer Tinsley-Williams was driving a police vehicle with his emergency lights and alarm sounding when he entered an intersection and collided with Sherita N. Ward. Both drivers then spun and collided with our client's automobile as she sat at the light awaiting a green signal. No citations have, to our knowledge, been issued. We have enclosed a courtesy copy of the accident report.

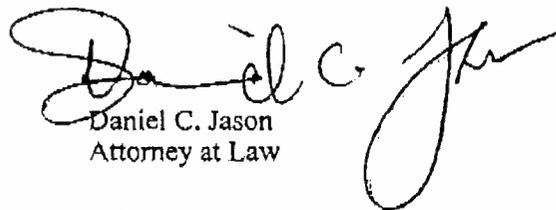

Pursuant to the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 33-3-28, please provide us with the declaration page delineating the policy limits of your insured's automobile insurance coverage. Additionally, all further correspondence regarding this matter should be directed to the undersigned.

We thank you and look forward to a quick and amicable resolution of this matter in the very near future.

With kind regards, we are

Sincerely yours,

JASON & BRADLEY, LLC
