Background: The Atlanta High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (“HIDTA”) multi-jurisdictional task force receives annual funding from the White House Office on National Drug Control Policy (“ONDCP”) to disrupt and dismantle violent drug trafficking organizations operating in metro Atlanta. The Atlanta Police Department (“Department”) is a long time member of the task force and the “pass through” fiduciary as approved by 05-R-0680. This resolution approves the Department applying for and accepting this year’s funding as a grant. The initially anticipated funding will be $5,301,360 but ONDCP frequently modifies this amount. The Department receives reimbursement for the overtime worked by the officers assigned to Atlanta HIDTA as well forfeited funds related to illegal drug trafficking seized by Atlanta HIDTA through the RICO program.
