City Council President Ceasar Mitchell to present a proclamation to Atlanta resident Solomon Brannan as the nation celebrates Super Bowl 50

Brannan played in the very first Super Bowl for the Kansas City Chiefs

ATLANTA – Atlanta City Council President will join the Pro Players Only Network in honoring Atlanta resident Solomon Brannan during the NFL Players Association Metro-Atlanta Chapter's Super Bowl 50 Anniversary Celebration at 5 p.m. on Sunday, February 7 at Main Event Entertainment, 10700 Davis Drive in Alpharetta, Ga. 30009.

Brannan, president of the NFL Players Association Metro-Atlanta Chapter, played in the first ever Super Bowl, representing the Kansas City Chiefs against the Green Bay Packers in the NFL/AFL matchup held on Sunday, January 15, 1967 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

During a 5:30 p.m. ceremony on Feb. 7 (Super Bowl Sunday) Brannan will receive a proclamation from President Mitchell on behalf of the Atlanta City Council, as well as proclamations from Fulton County Commissioner Bob Ellis, Governor Nathan Deal, and other honors.

A 1960 graduate of Savannah's Tompkins High School and Atlanta's Morris Brown College, Brannan has more than 30 years of experience in football as a player and coach. He played professional football in the NFL as a member of the Kansas City Chiefs, New York Jets, Cincinnati Bengals, and Detroit Lions of the NFL and as a member of the Jacksonville Sharks of the World Football League (WFL).

Brannan has been involved in the community for many years through his work with area youth and local charities, and for over 23 years as scout or coach at both the professional and college level. He has served as an assistant football coach and head track coach at Morris Brown College and at Morehouse College. For the past 27 years, he has also owned and operated Brannan Sports Enterprises in Southwest Atlanta.
