Neighborhood Movie and Jazz Concert in John A. White Park

ATLANTA – Please join Atlanta City Councilmember Keisha Lance Bottoms this weekend for a special twofold treat, a Jazz Concert followed by a Movie in John A. White Park, 1183 Cascade RD SW on Saturday, May 7. The concert begins at 3:00 p.m. followed by the movie Purple Rain at sundown.

You are welcome to bring blankets, picnic baskets, and folding chairs. Remember to wear your purple as a tribute to the passing of Prince. Get ready for a day of cool, smooth jazz in the park and an outstanding movie classic. The exciting free jazz concert features live performances from the Freddy Cole Quartet, J.O. Wyatt and the Morgan Guerin Quartet. Please note that the movie may not be suitable for young audiences.

The venue will include food truck vendors, popcorn, cotton candy, face painting, a strolling magician, arts n craft and a balloon artist for the children.

The Neighborhood Jazz Concert is presented by Councilmember Bottoms and the Office of Cultural Affairs. The Office of Cultural Affairs produces annual neighborhood concerts that celebrate jazz in venues throughout metro Atlanta. For more information, on 31 Days of Jazz leading up to Memorial Day visit: <http://atlantafestivals.com/>.

Please call Councilmember Bottoms office at (404) 330-6054 for questions or concerns.
