Councilman Michael Julian Bond to honor multi-talented entertainer Raheem the Dream

ATLANTA – Atlanta City Councilman Michael Julian Bond will be honoring the multi-talented entertainer Raheem the Dream with a proclamation presentation at the Full Council meeting at Atlanta City Hall on Monday, May 16, 2016. Following the presentation there will be reception for him.

Raheem The Dream has been very successful in the music industry on the local, regional and national levels with the major deals that he has had with Breakaway Entertainment, Atlantic Records, and Universal Music. His honor is dedicated to his outstanding contributions and groundbreaking work that helped to lay the foundation of Atlanta Hip Hop Music as it is known today.

Councilman Bond and other council members expressed their appreciation for the music -award winning producer, songwriter, rapper and author Micaiah Raheem, AKA Raheem the Dream for his outstanding and tremendous contribution to the City of Atlanta music scene.
