Potential Candidates:

As the City of Atlanta Municipal Clerk/Election Superintendent, it is my goal to provide you with as much pertinent information as possible regarding the City of Atlanta's General Municipal Election.

Although the actual process of qualifying to become a candidate is simple enough, the entirety of matters related to the election and your candidacy is multi-jurisdictional and may be a bit overwhelming. This website provides comprehensive information for anyone seeking office and is compiled into a one-stop shop for the following office:

- City of Atlanta Mayor
- City of Atlanta Council President
- City of Atlanta Districts and At-Large Council Members
- City of Atlanta Board of Education Districts and At-Large Members

The entire staff of the Office of Municipal Clerk is dedicated to providing all interested persons with answers to frequently asked questions that arise during the campaign period. If you have any questions regarding the City of Atlanta General Municipal Election process, please feel free to visit the office in person at 55 Trinity Avenue, Suite 2700, email us at municipalclerk@atlantaga.gov or call our Election Hotline at (404) 330-6500.

Sincerely,

Foris Webb III
Municipal Clerk/Election Superintendent

City Employee or City Board, Authority, Commission Etc. Member Offering for Elective Office and Political Activity Participation

As Taken from the City of Atlanta Code of Ordinance

Sec. 114-2. - Standards of conduct prescribed; penalty for violation.

- (a) Any employee offering for election to the office of mayor, president of the city council or member of the city council shall resign from the employee's position with the city, and such resignation shall be effective as of the date upon which such person files with the office of the municipal clerk, her/his "Declaration of Intention to Accept Campaign Contributions" as prescribed by the state ethics commission, or as of the date upon which such person files with the office of the municipal clerk, her/his "Notice of Candidacy and Affidavit", and pays the required qualifying fee, or files a pauper's affidavit in lieu thereof, as prescribed by O.C.G.A. Sec. 21-2-132, or, If a write-in candidate, the date upon which such person files with the office of the municipal clerk, her/his "Notice of Intent of Write-In Candidacy", as prescribed by O.C.G.A. Sec. 21-2-133, whichever first occurs.
- (b) If an employee of the city offers for an elective office, other than those indicated in subsection (a) of this section, and the employee desires a leave of absence or, in the opinion of the department head, the campaign for the office will conflict with the employee's duties or work hours, the employee shall take a leave of absence as provided by section 114-422.
- (c) No employee shall offer for an elective office without having first filed a written notification, with such employee's department head, of the employee's intent to file as a candidate for elective office. Such notification shall state the office the employee intends to seek, the governmental jurisdiction of the office, the dates of filing for candidacy and the date of the election.
- (d) Should such employee be elected to an office which the department head determines interferes with or affects the employee's duties or hours of city employment, a separation shall be required at a time to be determined by the department head.
- (e) No employee, official or person shall knowingly solicit any assessments, contributions or services for any political party or candidate from any employee of the city.
- (f) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the employee to hold membership or office in or support a political party and to vote as the employee chooses.
- (g) For the purposes of this section only, a public elected official of the city shall not be considered an employee except for subsection (e) of this section. However, if any member or officer of a commission, council or board created by the city or appointed or confirmed by an elected official or officials of the city, and is not then currently serving as an elected official of the city, or the chair or officer of any neighborhood planning unit or an elected neighborhood planning unit committee member, offers for election to the office of mayor, president of the city council or member of the city council, such member, officer or chair shall resign from such position with any such commission, council or board, or with the neighborhood planning unit. Such resignation shall be effective as of the date upon which such person files with the office of the municipal clerk, her/his "Declaration of Intention to Accept Campaign Contributions" as prescribed by the State Ethics Commission, or as of the date upon which such person files with the office of the municipal clerk, her/his "Notice of Candidacy and Affidavit", and pays the required qualifying fee, or files a pauper's affidavit in lieu thereof, as prescribed by O.C.G.A. Sec. 21-2-132, or, if a write-in candidate, the date upon which such person files with the office of the municipal clerk, her/his "Notice of Intent of Write-In Candidacy," as prescribed by O.C.G.A. Sec. 21-2-133, whichever first occurs.

- (h) No person shall in any manner prevent or attempt to prevent the impartial execution of this chapter or policies or rules promulgated under this chapter.
- (i) No person shall, directly or indirectly, give, render, pay, offer, solicit or accept any money, service or valuable consideration for any appointment, proposed appointment, promotion or proposed promotion or any advantage in any position with the city.
- (j) No person shall defeat, deceive or obstruct any person in such person's right of application, eligibility, certification or appointment under this chapter or furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose of affecting the rights or prospects of any person with respect to employment in the classified service.
- (k) Employees of the city shall be subject to the following rules and regulations concerning political activity:
 - (1) No officer or employee shall use official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of any election or the nomination for any office.
 - (2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the right of an employee to express privately the employee's opinions on all political subjects and candidates, to maintain political neutrality and to attend political meetings after working hours.
 - (3) All employees shall comply with all applicable provisions of the Federal Hatch Political Activities Act as amended by the Federal Election Campaign Act Amendments of 1974, and any subsequent amendments thereto.
- (l) Any person who shall violate subsection (h), (i) or (j) of this section shall, for the period of five years, be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position with the city, and any officer or employee who shall violate any such subsection shall be dismissed from any office or position held by such officer or employee.

(Ord. No. 2007-22(06-O-2700), § 1, 3-27-07; Ord. No. 2009-50(09-O-1311), § 1, 9-8-09)

GAHB - Employees Seeking and Holding Political Offices

Employees of the Atlanta Board of Education are expected to exercise their rights of franchise and assume the duties and responsibilities of good citizenship under the American democratic way of life.

In the event an employee of the Board wishes to qualify or become a candidate for public office, he/she may be granted a leave of absence without pay for the purpose of campaigning for such office. However, a leave of absence is not mandatory, with the proviso that the employee shall not engage in any political or campaign activity on his/her own behalf or on behalf of any other candidate during regular working hours or on Board time.

The Superintendent or his/her designee may administratively place an employee on involuntary leave of absence if it is determined at any point during a campaign period that the employee's campaign effort interferes with the successful performance of his/her assigned duties. The Superintendent's action may be appealed by the employee to the Board.

If the employee is elected to membership on the Board, he/she shall either retire or resign, effective the day following installation in office. Continued employment with the Board upon successful election to any other public office shall be governed by the capacity of the employee to perform his/her job duties while holding public office and by the relationship of the Board to the other governmental agency and the City Charter. Brief, occasional absences may be accommodated through the Board's regular personal leave policy. Extended, prolonged, or regular absences prohibiting the successful completion of assigned duties shall be cause administratively to arrange an extended leave of absence for the employee in accordance with the Board's leave policy.
