

Living Wage for Atlanta Airport Cleaners

SEIU Workers United

The Southern Region, Workers United, SEIU has represented cleaning service employees at Hartsfield Jackson since 2009. Prior to that they were represented by another part of SEIU. Originally the employees were employed by the contractor, ICS Contract Services, LLC.

ICS was purchased by AIR SERV in 2011. ABM was awarded a contract at the airport in 2010 and negotiated a contract with the Union. In 2016 ABM purchased AIR SERV. Today ABM is responsible for concourses A, B, C, D and the main terminal. A DBE, Corporate Services Management of America (CSM) has concourses E and F and the international terminal and is non-union.

ABM currently employees over 400 airport cleaners.

SEIU-WUSR represents over 15,000 private sector workers across the South. In the Atlanta metro area, we represent over 6,000 workers at the Atlanta Airport, Food Service Workers (Spelman, Clark Atlanta, Morehouse, Oglethorpe, Agnes Scott, and Truist Park), Distribution Center workers (Marshalls, Homegoods, and PVH), Industrial Laundries (ALSCO, Aramark, Elite, Novo, and Crothall), Manufacturing (Mauser), and graduate students at Emory University. SEIU has almost 2 million members nationwide.

Atlanta Airline Terminal Company (AATC)

HISTORY

AATC started with a simple idea – to establish an airline-owned and controlled management team that would provide the most efficient and cost-effective airport operation and maintenance services in the industry. This concept was then formalized in 1979 through the Contracting Airlines' lease agreement, officially announcing what is now Atlanta Airlines Terminal Company.

FACTS

- AATC is a privately-held company that operates and maintains 7.2 million square feet which makes up the Central Passenger Terminal Complex (CPTC) at Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport in Atlanta, Georgia.
- Our Members include American Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Frontier Airlines, Southwest Airlines, Spirit Airlines and United Airlines.
- AATC provides services to 55,000 employees and over 100 million airline passengers annually.
- AATC is comprised of 81 team members overseeing 40+ contracts and 1,100+ contract partners
